

Bomb Threats

In seeking to deal firmly with the problem of emergency evacuations in the public schools, the board acknowledges the following basic responsibilities:

- a. To ensure the safety of the students;
- b. To discourage any unwarranted disruption, which poses a danger or nuisance to the schools;
- c. To permit parents to exercise their own judgment in matters that affect their children's safety; and,
- d. To comply with state law, which requires that school be conducted a minimum of 175 days per year.
